International Conference on

Innovative technologies in organic horticultural production

Organized in the framework of the research project

EkoTechProdukt

23-24 October 2014, Skierniewice, Poland

Program of the Conference

Thursday October 23rd 2014

Research Institute of Horticulture
Main building of the Pomology Division, Pomologiczna str. 18

9.00 Registration

9.30 - 10.40 Opening Session

Chairman: Franciszek Adamicki

9.30 - 9.45 Welcome statements

Franciszek Adamicki (Director of the Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland)

Zofia Szalczyk (Under Secretary of State, Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development – Poland)

9.45 - 10.05 Invited speaker: Andrzej Hałasiewicz (Permanent Representative of Poland to FAO – Italy): FAO activities for organic farming.

10.05 - 10.25 Invited speaker: Andre' Leu (IFOAM World President – Australia): Organic Agriculture, innovation and food security in a changing world climate.

10.25 - 10.45 Lidia Sas-Paszt (EkoTechProdukt project leader - Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Project achievements - new products and technologies based on microorganisms for the organic fruit production.

10.45 - 13.00 I Session:

Products and technologies for organic horticulture

Chairman: Franco Weibel

10.45 - 11.10 Invited lecture: Nikolay Vassilev (University of Granada – Spain): Beneficial soil microorganisms - a story of successes and challenges.

11.10 - 11.40 Coffee break

11.40 - 12.00 Eligio Malusà (EkoTechProdukt project scientific coordinator – Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): A new generation of fertilizers and soil amendments for organic horticultural crops.

12.00 - 12.20 Ryszard Hołownicki (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Application methods for bioproducts in organic fruit production.

12.20 - 12.30 Agnieszka Rutkowska (Institute of Soil Science and Plant Cultivation, State Research Institute – Poland): The rules on qualification of fertilizers and soil conditioners for organic production in Poland.

12.30 - 12.40 Edward Someus (Refertil – Sweden): REFERTIL: recycling and economical reuse of concentrated "ABC" Animal Bone biochar, natural organic phosphorous fertilizer in horticulture.

12.40 - 12.50 Kalaji Hazem Mohamed (Warsaw University of Life Sciences - Poland): "Spying" on products quality of organic farming by the use of Chlorophyll a fluorescence technique.

12.50 - 13.00 Discussion

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch Restaurant Finezja

14.00 - 16.00 II Session:

Plant protection in organic horticulture

Chairman: Marco Fontanelli

14.00 - 14.30 Franco Weibel (Research Institute of Organic Agriculture (FiBL) – Switzerland): Organic fruit crops protection: new approaches and challenges.

14.30 - 14.50 Jolanta Kowalska (Institute of Plant Protection, National Research Institute – Poland): Can microorganisms be useful in the protection of crops?.

14.50 - 15.05 Ewa Matyjaszczyk (Institute of Plant Protection, National Research Institute – Poland): Qualification of plant protection products for use in organic farming in Poland.

15.05 - 15.20 Cezary Tkaczuk (Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities – Poland): Potential of entomopathogenic fungi in biological control of insect and mite pests in organic horticultural production.

15.20 - 15.35 Barbara Łabanowska (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Possibility to control the mites (Tetranychidae and Eriophyidae) on small fruits plants and in orchards with no chemicals products.

15.35 - 15.50 Piotr Sobiczewski (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Physical and biological methods for the control of soil-borne harmful organisms in organic farming.

15.50 - 16.00 Discussion

16.00 - 16.15 Coffee break

16.15 - 17.00 Special session:

Newly developed products

Chairman: Nikolay Vassilev

16.15 - 16.25 Selma Rogalska (Lallemand Care - France): New products based on microorganisms for the biological control of Botrytis cinerea and the growth promotion of horticultural plants.

16.25 - 16.35 Martin Bagar (Biocont Laboratory – Czech Republic): A plant resistance improver as a part of apple scab control in organic and integrated production.

16.35 - 16.45 Efrén Remesal González (Agroindustrial Kimatec S.L. – Spain): An unique and innovative product based on mycorrhizal fungi.

16.45 - 16.55 Marcin Oleszczak (Kazgod – Poland): The search for new opportunities in the protection of horticultural plants.

16.55 - 17.00 Discussion

17.00 - 18.25 III Session:

Health effects and safety aspects of organic products

Chairman: Claudia Marques dos Santos Cordovil

17.00 - 17.30 Invited lecture: Margit Laimer (University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences – Austria): Functional genomics of allergen gene families in fruits.

17.30 - 18.00 Dariusz Nowak (Medical University of Łódź - Poland): Effect of organic fruits on human metabolism and health.

18.00 - 18.15 Magdalena Jasińska-Stroschein (Medical University of Łódź - Poland): Assessment of allergenicity risk of selected fruits (apple, strawberry, sour cherry) using the experimental guinea pig model.

18.15 - 18.25 Discussion

18.30 - 19.00 Poster session - Reymonta str. 18,
Training and Conference Centre

19.30 Dinner – Restaurant Dworek

Friday October 24th 2014

Research Institute of Horticulture

8.30 - 9.30 Poster session - Reymonta str. 18,
Training and Conference Centre

Main building of the Pomology Division, Pomologiczna str. 18

9.30 - 11.50 IV Session:

Agrotechnical management of organic horticultural crops

Chairman: Andre' Leu

- 9.30 - 10.00 Invited lecture: Marco Fontanelli (University of Pisa – Italy): Innovative methods for soil management in organic horticulture.
- 10.00 - 10.20 Zygmunt Grzyb (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Comparison of apple and sour cherry maidens fertilized with mineral and organic fertilizers in organic nursery.
- 10.20 - 10.40 Elżbieta Rozpara (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): The organic fruit production in Poland - chances and limitations.
- 10.40 - 10.55 Ewa Solarska (University of Life Sciences in Lublin - Poland): Biological agents enhancing soil fertility and plant resistance.
- 10.55 - 11.10 Grzegorz Doruchowski (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Effect of the sprayer operating parameters on the survival rate of rhizobacteria used as biopesticides in organic fruit production.
- 11.10 - 11.25 Mirosław Sitarek (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Effect of some bioproducts on apple tree growth in rhizoboxes.
- 11.25 - 11.40 Iwona Szot (University of Life Sciences in Lublin - Poland): Alternate thinning of apple with potassium bi-carbonate (Armicarb™) in organic orchards.
- 11.40 - 11.50 Discussion
- 11.50 - 12.15 Coffee break

12.15 - 14.20 V Session:

Quality and economics of organic products

Chairman: Margit Laimer

- 12.15 - 12.45 Invited lecture: Claudia Marques dos Santos Cordovil (University of Lisbon – Portugal): The role of organic farming in Portuguese agriculture: From where we stand to where we go.
- 12.45 - 13.05 Krzysztof P. Rutkowski (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): A comparison of quality of fruits produced under organic and integrated production.

- 13.05 - 13.25 Krzysztof Zmarlicki (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Opportunities and challenges for the organic production of fruits in Poland.
- 13.25 - 13.40 Michał Rzytki (Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development - Poland): The Framework Action Plan for organic food and farming in Poland for the years 2014 – 2020.
- 13.40 - 13.55 Maciej Zalewski (Polish Academy of Sciences/University of Lodz – Poland): Integrative environmental science as a framework for development of organic horticulture, enhancement of ecosystem services and sustainable future.
- 13.55 - 14.10 Artur Miszczak (Research Institute of Horticulture – Poland): Monitoring of pesticides residues in horticultural organic products.
- 14.10 - 14.20 Discussion
- 14.20 - 14.45 Closing session:
Summary and prizes awards
Chairmen: Lidia Sas-Paszt and Eligio Malusà
- 14.45 - 15.45 Lunch - Restaurant Finezja
- 16.00 - 17.00 Visit to the Institute premises (booking required)
